

Supporting Our NHS People

Helping you manage your own health and wellbeing whilst looking after others

Our offer to you

The NHS People Plan sets out a series of national health and wellbeing ambitions that aim to create cultures of wellbeing across the NHS, where colleagues feel looked after and cared for. Through the response to the pandemic and now more than ever, our NHS people deserve a comprehensive package of emotional, psychological and practical health and wellbeing support.

As well as the national intentions outlined in the NHS People Plan, a range of guides, apps and resources that aim to support both your individual wellbeing and that of your team are available at:

www.england.nhs.uk/people

Wellbeing conversations

Resources to support you when approaching and holding a wellbeing conversation

The wellbeing of our NHS and social care colleagues can be affected by all kinds of factors at work. Workload, capacity, relationships with colleagues and the physical working environment can all have an impact. Likewise, factors outside work, including lack of sleep, financial worries, health conditions and caring responsibilities, can have an impact – especially if they have changed recently.

The NHS People Plan encourages us to hold regular, one to one, wellbeing conversations with our colleagues.

We have published a range of resources to support you in having a wellbeing conversation with your colleagues. These resources include a guide for line managers, an animation, several case studies and a staff experience video.

Bespoke support for primary care colleagues

#Looking after you too: Primary care coaching offer

Our primary care colleagues (including those working in both clinical and non clinical roles across general practice, dental, optometry and pharmacy services, have faced unprecedented challenges throughout the pandemic.

This individual coaching support offer is available to all primary care colleagues and is delivered by a highly skilled and experienced coach. This is a safe space to offload the demands of whatever you are experiencing and be supported in developing practical strategies for dealing with this. It might be that through a one-off conversation you have all the strategies you need to cope with your situation and stay well, or you might find a few sessions helpful.

Physical health and wellbeing offer

Invictus Games Foundation Partnership

Looking after your physical health is key to supporting your overall health and wellbeing, including your mental health. As such, we are pleased to be working with the following organisations to offer physical health and wellbeing support to our NHS people..

We know it has been a tough year for everyone, but the best time to focus on your own physical and mental wellbeing is always now. That's why we've partnered with Invictus Games Foundation, the partnership includes the launch of a series of podcasts that reflect on a variety of themes and a "5K our way" challenge, designed to help inspire and support our NHS people to step away from work and take time for themselves.

Wellbeing resources

Substance misuse and gambling support

Recognising the increasing pressures on NHS staff, we have put together a range of information on substance misuse and gambling support available through a number of organisations.

Substance misuse

Substance abuse or misuse can severely affect a person's physical and mental health, and can impair their ability to function. It can equally cause harm to others around them. There are a range of services and helplines that can provide support for those who may need somebody to talk to.

Gambling

Problem gambling can have a devastating impact on individuals and families in all areas of life, including relationships, physical and psychological health and wellbeing, work and self-esteem. There is help available, not only for gamblers but also for their friends and family.

Staff mental health hubs

Staff mental health hubs

The staff mental health and wellbeing hubs have been set up to provide healthcare colleagues rapid access to local evidence-based mental health services and support where needed. The hub offer is confidential and free of charge for all healthcare staff. The hubs can offer you a clinical assessment and supported referral to the support that you need, such as talking therapy or counselling. It is separate and confidential from your organisation.

It is open to all healthcare staff, from all services and settings regardless of whether you are dealing directly with COVID-19 patients or not. You can self-refer or refer a colleague (with their consent).

To find your local hub: Please visit the website below and select the region most appropriate to you. Staff mental health and wellbeing hubs are going live across the country over the next few weeks, please check back if a hub in your local area is not listed yet. If you need support now and your local hub isn't live, please see the current staff wellbeing offers or talking therapies available.

Coming soon in 2021

As we progress into this new financial year, the national support offer will continue to develop, based on feedback from colleagues and the ongoing delivery of the NHS People Plan intentions.

We will shortly be sharing the following, please do keep checking in with us for updates:

- An updated national Health and Wellbeing Framework
- Civility and Respect Restorative and Just training programme

Finally, we'd like to remind all NHS colleagues that alongside these national offers, your local organisation will likely have internal support offers available to you too, such as Occupational Health and Wellbeing services and EAP services.

You can also access support through your local NHS services, such as NHS talking therapies or your GP.

Have your say

We would like to invite you to complete an anonymous questionnaire that offers an opportunity to provide feedback on the wellbeing support available nationally to all NHS staff.

This questionnaire will take approximately 10 minutes to complete and any responses submitted will be valuable in helping us shape the national offer.

You can access the survey here:

<https://nhsei-hwb.onlinesurveys.ac.uk/supporting-our-nhs-people-your-feedback>

Thank you for taking the time to submit your views.
